

Legacy Junior Rodeo Association

Rule Book

Membership Requirements

1. Member must be in 9th grade or lower as of January 1st of the LJRA rodeo season.
 - a. A copy of the contestant's birth certificate may be required at the time of joining the association.
 - b. Provisions will be made for disabled or special needs contestants in all events.
2. Each member is required to have a parental consent and release form signed by a parent or legal guardian.
3. LJRA will have an open membership to any contestant who is in the 9th grade or lower.
4. Membership and entry fees will be determined yearly.
5. Any return checks will result in a $25.00 fee. In addition to the fee all rodeo registration privileges will be held until return checks are made good and all fees are brought current.
6. Member and Parents shall conduct themselves in a good sportsmanship manner at all times. Mistreatment of rodeo stock or contestant horses will result in disqualification from the rodeo. If a second offense takes place within the same rodeo season as the first offense, the contestant will be disqualified from competing for the remainder of the season.
7. LJRA dress code is as follows and applies inside of the competition arena.
 - a. Cowboy hat or riding helmet
 - i. If hat or helmet comes off before contestant enters the arena a 5 second penalty will be assessed. This will be determined by were the hat contacts the ground not when it left the contestants head.

- b. Long sleeve shirt with a collar
 - c. Long pants
 - d. Western boots with a heel
 - e. Violation of dress code will result in a disqualification
8. Rough stock contestants must be checked in and fees paid 10 minutes before the official start time. Alternates will be called for at the rodeo official start time if contestants haven't checked in.
 9. Once the Rodeo Draw is completed NO entry fees will be refunded.
 10. Unless LJRA is notified 24 hours prior to rodeo start time a no-show fee of $10.00 will be charged. Contestants will not be allowed to register for the next rodeo until all no-show fees are brought current
 11. There will be no late entries allowed. You can sign up for rodeos at the previous rodeo or mail entries as long as the post mark is stamped 2 weeks prior to the date of the rodeo that is being entered.
 12. Rodeo sign-up will be held at the previous rodeo or by mail 2 weeks prior the rodeo being entered. See rodeo schedule for dates.
 13. All judges' decisions are final.
 14. There will be no tolerance for any drug or alcohol use by any contestant or their parents/legal guardians while on rodeo premises. Any contestant or parents/legal guardians found under the influence of drugs or alcohol may result in disqualification of the contestant from all events of the current rodeo. They will also be referred to the association board to determine if further action is necessary.
 15. Contestants can only receive all-around points in the age group they belong to as determined by their age as of January 1st of the competing season. If a contestant wants to compete in an older age group they must declare this on their entry form of their first competing rodeo of the season.
 16. There is a 90 second time limit that applies to every contestant in every event. This time limit is to get contestants in the arena competing in a timely manner. The time will start as soon as judges and other personnel are in place and ready for the contestant to compete. At the point that all personnel all are in place the 90 second time limit will begin and if contestants are not competing within 90 seconds they will be disqualified at the judge's discretion.

Association Fee

A $75.00 membership fee is required to join the association. Membership is due before the first rodeo contestant competes in. Contestants will not be allowed to sign up and compete at scheduled rodeos until the membership fee is paid. All membership fees go toward the associations operational costs. Any excess money that isn't needed for operational costs for current season or the next season will go towards year end awards. Membership fees will not be refunded if contestant decides to drop out of association.

Sponsorship Fee

Each contestant is required to obtain a $100.00 sponsorship fee to be turned in before the second rodeo of the season. Contestants who do not meet the sponsorship requirements will not be allowed to compete.

Award and Point System

1. This cumulative point system will be the only one used and will be the only means of qualifying for the year end awards.
2. Contestants must participate in a qualifying event at least 3 times per season for points to go toward year-end awards in that event.
3. The maximum number of points earned at each rodeo will be 10 points. Points will be given for the top 10 in each event. 10 points for 1st place, 9 points for 2nd place, 8 points for 3rd place, etc.
4. Each age group will have an All-Around cowboy and cowgirl. The highest cumulative points throughout the year will earn All-Around awards.
5. Eligibility for the all-around awards requires participation in at least 5 rodeos per season and at least 3 times in that qualifying event. Contestant must earn points in more than one event to qualify for all-around points and awards.
6. Stick Horse Barrels, Goat Ribbon Pull, Dummy Roping and Mutton Busting points will not count toward 7 & under all-around points.
7. Pay back will be awarded after all stock charges are met. Pay back will be based on number of contestants that enter that event at each rodeo. In case of a tie the places involved will be added together and split between the contestants. Ground money will go back into the association fund and put towards year-end awards.
8. Prizes will be given at the association awards banquet. Awards and banquet are contingent upon association funds and sponsorship.
9. If there is less than an average of 6 contestants participating in an event only 1 buckle will be awarded.
10. Contestants are allowed to earn event points in events offered in an older age group. Points earned in an older age group will only count for event standings and will not count towards All-Around points. All contestants must compete in at least 3 rodeos in that specific event to be eligible for year-end awards.

11. Award checks must be cashed within 90 days or the check will be voided and will not be re-issued.
12. Contestants will only receive points towards the all-around in the age group they declare or belong in from the first rodeo of the season.
13. Tie breaker for the year end awards will be decided off of the contestant that had the most 1st places throughout the year. If there is still a tie we will move down to the most 2nd places. This process will continue with 3rd, 4th, etc. until the tie is broken.
